

The Bergen County Utilities Authority (BCUA), Verizon and Public Service Electric and Gas (PSE&G) joined with Hackensack Riverkeeper to install an Osprey nesting platform on BCUA property located along the banks of the Hackensack River in Little Ferry. Verizon has supported the construction of dozens of nests for the endangered osprey in Atlantic, Monmouth and Ocean counties. This is the first Verizon has funded in Bergen County.

